Oshkosh Corporation has been recognized by Military Times as one of the 2023 Best for Vets Employers. Oshkosh is committed to providing valuable work to those who have served. As the first Wisconsin partner in the U.S. Chamber of Commerce Foundation's "Hiring Our Heroes" program, Oshkosh offers a 12-week fellowship program that matches transitioning servicemembers with civilian opportunities. Participants are matched with a civilian program manager and mentor in their final 180 days of active duty, working Monday-Thursday with their corporate employer to gain professional training and hands-on experience to prepare to join the civilian workforce. Best for Vets spotlights companies with employment programs that help transitioning service members excel in their post-military careers. Companies on the list offer programs and services of greatest importance to service members, veterans and their families when looking for an employer. Recruitment and employment practices, as well as retention and support programs, were given the most weight in the ranking of recognized companies.

"Oshkosh is committed to a People First culture and we're proud to support the military community. This recognition validates our efforts to recruit, coach, mentor and retain veterans," said Emma M. McTague, senior vice president and chief human resources officer. "We're honored to have more than 1,100 talented veteran, guard, reserve and military spouse team members already working at our company."
